

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law. Unwanted solicitation is very disruptive to a young family, the less the phone rings the better!